Daniel Rodriguez

America's Beloved Tenor, "The Singing Policeman"

(This is a special concert to honor the First Responders, Military and Veterans of our community.)

Former New York City police officer, Daniel Rodriguez has experienced a meteoric rise to fame. He was one of his department's designated anthem singers on September 11, 2001, when fate intervened. He has rendered acapella performances of "God Bless America" and the National Anthem that proved far greater than a patriotic gesture. Ringing, heartfelt and beautiful: his performance stirred the hearts of the entire nation.

Phoenix Theater

The Phoenix Theatre for Children, a non-profit Columbus theatre company, specializes in family entertainment. Now in its 16th season, the Phoenix Theatre for Children is a collective of artists who create and present original productions, as well as some well known works with a Phoenix twist, for young audiences. Phoenix produces a full season of plays each year and also places a great deal of emphasis on outreach and education initiatives.

Matt Jergens

February 18, 2010 (Thursday) 7:30 pm

Matt's show involves electrifying routines that showcase the talents of one of the top jugglers in the United States. He fills the stage with a multitude of unique props like pins, rings, spinning plates, cigar boxes, and yes, even rat traps! He doesn't forget the most important part of the show either, the audience. There are many opportunities for volunteers to come up and help out with a trick or stunt. Then, once they are successful, Matt sends them back to their seats looking like the stars of the show. Opening act is Mike Hemmelgarn, magician, comedian, and ventriloquist. Mike has been fascinated with the art of ventriloquism since the age of eight and juggling since the age of sixteen. He went door-to-door selling newspaper subscriptions to earn enough money to purchase his first "dummy", a hard wood puppet named "Bob".

Buffalo Rome

March 23, 2010 (Tuesday) 7:30 pm

Blending a rootsy feel reminiscent of the 1970's west coast country rock scene with today's modern country, Buffalo Rome brings a vinyl vibe to the digital age. With three individual, unique styles and tastes for music, Michael Visconti, Kevin Douglas and Billy McCorvey bring their life experiences and life stories together to create musical magic. Buffalo Rome is "A sound that's holistic, wholly mature, yet fresh in nature. Buffalo Rome is a sound that's 'lived in.'"
